

J B Reser

April 1, 1923 - February 26, 2021

J.B. Reser passed peacefully from this life on February 26, 2021, with family by his side, in Altus at the age of 97. J.B. was born on April 1, 1923, at home in Granite, OK, to Jesse Reser and Inez (Broiles) Reser. J.B. lived most of his life in the Granite vicinity, graduating from Granite in 1941. He served our country in the United States Army during WWII in the Panama Canal area. Returning home from his service, J.B. went into grocery business. He was a hard worker and enjoyed the people he served each day. During this time, he sparked an interest in the pretty little lady with two boys that lived down the street at the Nance Hotel. J.B. and Beverly were married in 1955, and the family continued in the grocery business. Later, J.B. went into the banking business where he worked until retirement. On the side, J.B. enjoyed being part of farming some with longtime friend, Tom Neighbors.

From an early age, J.B. loved nature. This included love of trees, gardening, lawns, but, most especially water. He was a unique fisherman knowing every angle of catching the best bass or catfish. He and Beverly enjoyed several fishing trips to south Texas. In later years, J.B. enjoyed watching sports on TV and his daily coffee times with his buddies. He loved his town of Granite and always wanted the best for it to continue on. Being a part of several organizations for that cause was important to him. J. B. was a member of the Granite Church of Christ and loved attending Church. The family was a joy to him from children to grand to great. The gathering of family at holiday time was a happy time for him; especially Fourth of July and Thanksgiving. He would be looking for homemade ice cream or sharing his pecan pie.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Beverly, one son, Joe McGavock, one sister, Mary Lou Shultz, and one brother, Dale Reser

J.B. is survived by his son, Jerry McGavock and wife Nancy of Granite. Five grandchildren—Brad McGavock and wife Nicole of Owasso, OK, Matthew Ned and wife Kimberly of Skiatook, OK, Ashley Ousley and husband Ryan of Monroe, GA, Jenny McGavock and husband Daniel of Broken Arrow, OK, and Karie McGavock of OKC, OK. Great grandchildren—Adalyn Hodges, Reese Hodges, Claire McGavock, Cooper Hull, Hudson

Hull, Julia McGavock, and Samantha Ousley. He will also be missed greatly by many other relatives and friends.

Public viewing for J.B. will begin Monday, March 1, 2021 at 1:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. with family receiving friends between 5:00 P.M. and 6:00 P.M. at Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, 580-846-9018. The family request, that in lieu of flowers, memorials in JB's name can be made to the Church of Christ in Granite, The Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation and the Granite Educational Enrichment Foundation.

Private Graveside Services will be held for J.B. The United States Army Honor Guard will perform graveside rites.

On-line condolences for can be made by visiting <http://www.peoplescooperatifuneralhome.com>.

Comments

“ 43 files added to the album LifeTributes

People's Cooperative Funeral Home - February 28 at 02:33 PM

“ I'm so sorry to hear about J.B. passing. He was such a sweet man! Another of the greatest generation called home. Sending prayers for Jerry and family, now and in the days ahead.

Kim Silman - February 27 at 07:13 PM