“ Mac was a true author of life. He had a way with words that no one else could repeat. He was like another brother to me always hanging out at our home in Granite with my brother Bill. I will miss all of our Facebook chats cheering on OU Sooner's! My condolences to all the family and friends! He will be dearly missed by many. He was a real trooper!!!

I will miss Alan's stories. I always looked forward to his posts. He even knew how to make his illness funny but yet inspiring. I wish he was able to write to us now and tell us stories about heaven. We will miss you but heaven is a brighter place with you in it.
