“ What a wonderful world it would be if more people were like Ms. Aloma. Yet this what the Bible has promise us in Psalms 37:29. Yes, many broken hearts will be healed when this promise will come true in Isaiah 25:8. So hang on just a little while longer.

“ I went to school at Lone Wolf with Aloma. She was one of my best friends. Even though I moved away to Texas, and then New York and lived there for 30 years, I never forgot my dear friend. In 2005, I moved back to Oklahoma. One of the first people I got in contact with was Aloma. I loved it when we talked on the phone or ran into her at a store, usually Walmart. She told me that whenever she drove through Rocky, she thought of me. I am heartbroken that we have lost such a beautiful lady. She will be sorely missed by all of us.

God must have needed her and now He has another angel in Heaven. I know Aloma will be watching out for us and sending her nurturing love, especially to the love of her life, Johnnie, and her daughter, Mary, and her grandchildren, as well as to all the rest of her family and many friends.

I will always remember her, and all the fond memories we shared. My sincere condolences to Johnnie, and the rest of her family. May God bless you.

ps: The photo is from a Christmas card Aloma sent me in 2005. It was so special I have always kept it on my desk where I could look at it, and remember the beautiful lady who sent it to me. She always asked the Granite Library to get the true story non/fiction books I wrote, but I would have gladly given them to her.
