“ Andy was one of the most selfless people I've ever known. I have so many great high school memories with him. He took me to my first concert when I eased 16 years old. People don't get any better than Andy.

“ I once witnessed Andy compare a bad day to trying to physically tear your own face off, and with a flick of his wrist, he promptly put his arm behind his head and pulled up on his forehead. I had been having an especially crappy time of things at that point, but something about my friend showing me the futility of giving in to frustration brought me out of one of the worst moments of my life. He was an amazing person and friend, and I only wish I'd told him more.

You will be missed Mr. Ousley. Wherever you've gone off to, save a seat for all of us. I'll buy the first round.

“ My heart is completely shattered at the news of Andy's passing. He lived with my family for awhile in Ada & made the best friendship with my kids, particularly my autistic son. He understood him when no one else did. He was Uncle Andy. We loved him dearly & he will be forever missed.
