

Anna Mae Morgan

September 3, 1934 - February 8, 2026

Anna Mae Morgan passed from this life on February 8, 2026, after suffering a stroke. She was born on September 3, 1934, in Ada, Oklahoma, to John E. and Zelma E. Stafford. At the age of 5, Anna moved with her family to Oklahoma City. She attended Willard Elementary, Roosevelt Jr. High, and graduated from Central High School in 1952. She sang in the chorus and choir during those years and continued her love of music with involvement in her church choirs. Anna “prayed through” to salvation at age 9 and was baptized at the old Faith Tabernacle in Oklahoma City at age 14. She married the love of her life Joe Bryan Morgan in May 1955 and attended Southwest Assembly of God Church. She began working at age 16 at Kress-a dime store. Anna was employed at Tinker AFB then worked at Federal Aviation Administration where she retired in 1994. She was a member of Grace Assembly of God Church for many years, then moved to Sallisaw, OK in 2004, where she attended First Assembly of God. Anna was very involved in church activities, her children, and a very active part of raising her grandchildren. Faith and family were her life. In more recent years, she enjoyed working crossword puzzles, eating out as often as possible, and spending time daily reading/memorizing the Bible. Her favorite chapter is Psalm 91, and her favorite scripture is Romans 8:28. God’s word assures us there is no pain, tears, death, or sorrow in Heaven. “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints” ~ Psalm 116:15. Anna is survived by 2 daughters, Sherry Beth Ponton, Phyllis Ann Lacquement and son in law Jeffery Lacquement. 5 grandchildren Amber and Christopher Morgan, Ashley Ponton, Kevin Lacquement, Jared Lacquement and granddaughter in love Lindsey Lacquement, great granddaughters Ana'lecia Ponton-Calip, and Elasia Brown, and a host of other relatives and friends. Anna is preceded in death by her husband Joe, her parents John and Zelma, her brother John Ralph Stafford, and her son Joe Steven Morgan.

Graveside services for Anna will be held on Monday, February 16, 2026, 11:00 A.M., at Lone Wolf Cemetery, with Pastor Michael Branson officiating.

“ Such good memories of Ann and Joe, and their children, Sherry, Steve, and Phyllis, which were our good friends. So many wonderful memories growing up at Grace Assembly of God involve the Morgans! Great people, salt of the earth! I'm glad Joe and Ann are reunited in Heaven now, as well as Steve, and look forward to the day when we will all be there together. Sending much love to you Sherry and Phyllis and to your families.

“ From Shirley Townsend via Hunie Townsend: It was probably 1962 everyone was at Grandpa and Grandma Morgan's, Grandpa had just a new chicken coop built. All the men were gone looking at some land, the clouds got really dark and the wind was blowing tumble weeds all over. I went in the house and said something my Momma looked outside and realized it was a tornado. Aunt Ann grabbed a bunch of kids and fell over us and all the women started praying. That tornado collapsed Grandpa's new chicken coop set the roof down on the folded down walls, then went up and came back down on the other side of the fence line. The tornado literally went over the farmhouse with probably 27 of us kids and women in it that day. Much love to you all.
