

Barbara Ann Hathorn

August 25, 1950 - February 28, 2019

Barbara Ann Hathorn former Hobart resident passed from this life on February 28, 2019 in Kingwood, Texas at age 68. She was born on August 25, 1950 in Hobart, Oklahoma to Troy Nolan Webb and Alta Mae (Hudgens) Webb. Barbara grew up in Hobart and was a Bearcat graduate. She married David Hathorn on June 4, 1974.

Barbara did many things including being self-employed as a Seamstress, working in upholstery for Corinne Hart, spent a number of years at the Regale Inn Motel working for Jim Ivy and was proud to work for Search Light for many years. She was a longtime member of the Presbyterian Church and did numerous volunteer activities and helped many. Barbara loved to collect ceramic chickens, she liked to talk but mostly argue with Will. Barbara was an avid reader and has probably read most all the books in the library.

She is survived by her two sons Norman Smith of Albuquerque, New Mexico and William Hathorn and wife Jenny of Yukon, Oklahoma and daughter Dawn Megee of Houston, Texas. Barbara leaves a legacy of four grandchildren, Teaghan, Emery, David Patrick, Shayleigh and her beloved five cats whom she loved dearly. She was preceded in death by her parents Nolan and Alta Webb, her husband David Hathorn, great-grandparents Anna and Ira Hudgens who raised her and preceded in death by daughter-in-law Linda Smith.

Graveside Services for Barbara are schedule for Tuesday, March 5, 2019, 10:00 A.M. at the Lone Star Cemetery, Rocky, Oklahoma, with public viewing beginning Monday at 1:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. at Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, Oklahoma 73655, 580-846-9018.

“ *William & Family,
I had many good visits with Barbara when I taught William during his middle school years in Hobart. She was very interested in William's education and behavior. Barbara never met a stranger. I know you have many wonderful memories of her. Willam & Family are thoughtfully in my prayers.
