“ *Dear Aunt Bonnie,
I Just Found Out the News. I would like to say this. Even though we lived far apart, and never got to see each other, You made an impact on my life. I remember you being there when my mom died. I remember you with my dad. You were a light in the darkness. You were the safe haven in the storm of our lives. You were strong. I thank you for that. And I never forgot it. There is also more crazy memories I have of you , with only the minutes we had together. I'll Never forget.
I love you
Shana Nelson.*

“ She never would say goodbye, the only way you knew that conversation was over was a click and a dial tone. You may never have known what you ment to so many, but to some of us you were that light in the dark, that glimmer of hope when all was lost. Strong, determined, and always quick with not only your wit, but for those who listened a tongue. A fierce lioness that would defend her family to the bitter end if needed. I only found out of your passing a few hours ago. Go and rest now, we all can take care of ourselves. Love and will miss you, and lastly thank you. Thank you for everything you were, and did not have to be.

“ Where do I begin.....I have known Bonnie my entire life. From living in the same neighborhood, hugging her at church, being friends with her grandchildren & her working with my mother at the bank for several years. Bonnie was always so sweet to me any and every time I saw her. She was so vibrant. Her laugh, her smile & her kindness. I am so glad God allowed her to cross my path. My thoughts and prayers are with Bonnie's family. Much love to you all.
