

Carol Wayne Elkins

October 24, 1927 - March 1, 2018

Carol Wayne Elkins passed from this life on March 1, 2018 at home with family by his side, at age 90. Carol was born on October 24, 1927 in Briscoe County, on a ranch between Clarendon and Silverton, Texas. He spent his early years in New Mexico, joined the Army Air Corp where he served in Guam. Carol married the love of his life Eleanor Josephine Porter on May 26, 1952 in Hurley, New Mexico and they enjoyed 65 years of marriage before Eleanor's passing in December of 2017. Carol worked in Civil Service at Tinker Air Force Base and retired from Altus Air Force Base. Carol loved carving, especially birds, liked to play cards, enjoyed fishing, but the most important thing to Carol and Eleanor was sharing Christ. They devoted 65 years to the Gospel, volunteer prison ministries, Carol visited the county jail weekly, it was a huge part of who he was, rain or shine he was there, helping anyone in need and always looking out for others. He also had a weekly radio broadcast. Carol was a great example to his children of a good Christian man. Carol spent many hours studying the scriptures, not just for sermons, he studied for himself, writing down his dreams.

Carol is survived by three sons Rex Elkins and wife Karen of Henryetta, Ricky Elkins and wife Kae of Sentinel and Allen Elkins of Clinton and one daughter Donna Gifford of Sentinel. Carol leaves a legacy of six grandchildren Bridgette, Cody, Kyla, Austin, Heather and Kraig and ten great-grandchildren Keelie, Kayden, Daryn, Kyann, Chamber, Chevelle, Jathan, Charity, Kelsey and Emma. Carol was preceded in death by his loving wife Eleanor, his parents, his sisters, his brothers, grandson Kyle Rex, great-grandson Ryan and son-in-law Darrin Keith Payne.
