

Dale Caid Sr.

April 18, 1931 - December 14, 2020

Dale Caid, Sr. passed from this life on December 14, 2020 in Granite, Oklahoma. He was born on April 18, 1931 to John William Caid and Fleecy DeRuth (Hopkins) Caid in Granite, Oklahoma. Dale grew up, went to school, and graduated from Granite High School. He loved to play baseball and other sports while in school and passed that love down to his family. After high school, Dale married the love of his life, Anna Lou Perry on December 23, 1950. They were blessed with two children, Skip and Sandy. During his earlier years he worked in Oklahoma City at Barney Brown Trucking Company. Some time later, Dale started custom harvesting with his father-in-law, J.B. Perry. After J.B. retired, Skip joined the family business which became known as Dale Caid and Son Custom Harvesting and later, Caid Custom Harvesting. Throughout the years, all of his grandchildren and many other family members worked on the harvest crew. Over 50 years of harvesting wheat fields from Oklahoma to Montana, many lifelong friendships were made. Dale followed in the firm foundation of faith set by his father as a member and Deacon at the First Baptist Church of Granite. Dale loved attending church and fellowship, especially if it included banana pudding or Debra's raisin pie at church potlucks. He and Anna Lou enjoyed square dancing in their younger days. When not busy on the farm, he liked to spend his time watching his grandkids play ball and show animals. Dale was an avid OKC Thunder fan, attended the National Finals Rodeo for many years, loved traveling to Clinton to the Jamboree, and seeing much of the country on bus trips taken with Anna Lou and a host of friends.
