“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ Donnie was a most favorite Uncle. He always loving and kind to me. He gave me a special nickname "Toodle" funny because as the years went by, he would still call me by my nickname. Uncle Donnie taught me to play twinkle twinkle little star on the guitar when I was in the 3rd grade. He showed me how to play bowling, and he would even rolled the ball for me cause I was to little. I remember one time a had a new swimsuit, when Uncle Donnie saw me in my swimsuit he told me that he thought it looked like I was wearing a lampshade!! He was a big teaser like that but made me laugh. To this day I am careful when shopping for a swimsuit!.Uncle Donnie was the best homemade fudge maker. Sometimes he would let me lick the bowl and spoon, that was a treat. He would give me his change and I would go buy a bag of candy. Uncle Donnie I love you and will always treasure my memories. So at that I will celebrate your life because I am thankful you was my Uncle. Love you "Toodles"
