“ I love Aunt Donnie! I am saddened to have been so out of touch, not to have known of her passing until now. Whenever I did reach her, I was always blessed by her kind and loving voice. I am the third son of the late J. Raymond Stowers,( Jack's older brother) and so, a nephew.

Living in Utah, each summer, with Mother and Dad we would make the trek to Oklahoma to see Grandma and Grandpa Stowers, Aunt Donnie and Uncle Jack and the rest of the Stowers/Wolfe clan. It was the prized vacation of the year. In reflecting upon her life, my immediate recollection takes me back to the two virtues afore mentioned, her immense power to show love and kindness. you not only felt it in her voice you saw it in her actions, be it a dog, a horny toad, a horse or me, I knew she loved me.

With deep faith and conviction of what Christ has given us all, In a coming bright day,I know we will see her again. I just feel to express my love and condolence to her sister Charlene, whom Aunt Donnie told me of all you did for her, to Linda, whom she loved and whom I remember as a child. To all who loved her, I extend my warmest regards in your healing of the loss of this great and wonderful woman. In her multitude of roles, she has blessed us all. I know my siblings would echo these sentiments, Shirley Ann(deceased) Art, Lynnette and Bob
