

Elizabeth Kay Whitehouse

June 30, 1943 - September 30, 2019

Elizabeth Kay Whitehouse passed from this life on September 30, 2019 in Hobart at age 76. Kay was born on June 30, 1943 in Los Angeles, California to Truman Watson and Mildred Ruth Randolph. She grew up in Fresno, CA and attended school there as well. In the early eighties she met & married the love of her life Richard Whitehouse. They spent many years together owning and operating their transportation business and raising their family. They also loved to travel. Kay and Richard owned their own trucks which they were very proud of. She loved the ocean and lived in Florida for many years. Kay enjoyed crocheting, she liked to read early on, loved her cats but mostly she loved and cared for her family.

Kay is survived by her son Daniel Hooker of Rocky, daughter Becky Jones and husband David also of Rocky, sister-in-laws Peggy DeMellow of Stockton, CA and Margaret Weaver of Raymore, Missouri.

She leaves a legacy of numerous grandchildren: David Jones and wife Jessica, Richard Jones and wife Casey, Christopher Jones, Jeremy Jones and significant other Stephanie Keil, Elizabeth Bennett and husband Steve, Amanda Cullop and husband Mike, William Johnson, Brian Shaw and wife Jerrica, Bambi Renee Hooker, Antwon Smith, Johnnie Davis, Antavia Smith, Deshawn Clark, Dashawn Clark, Kadisha Washington and numerous great-grandchildren and good friends Etta Netherton, Andrea Davis and a host of other family and friends.

Kay was preceded in death by her parents, loving husband Richard, daughter Vikki, and brother Jimmy DeMellow.

Memorial Services for Kay are scheduled for Saturday, October 5, 2019, 10:00 A.M. at the Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home Chapel, located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, 580-846-9018.

On-line condolences for Kay can be made by visiting www.poeoplescooperativ efuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Elizabeth Kay Whitehouse

October 08, 2023 at 02:10 PM

“ Elizabeth Kay Whitehouse

October 04, 2023 at 11:28 PM

“ Sending my prayers for Kay's Family. She was a very special Lady.

kathy betche - October 04, 2019 at 10:56 AM