

Eulis Samuel Mobley

August 19, 1928 - September 5, 2018

Eulis Samuel Mobley, 90, passed from this life on Wednesday, September 5, 2018. He was born in Heavener, Oklahoma on August 19, 1928 to Dora Ellen and William Harvey Mobley. Eulis was preceded in death by his parents, one half-sister, four sisters and two brothers. He is survived by his wife of 73 years, Rosella; one sister, Bea Ahrens, of Crawford, Nebraska; a son, Eulis Ray Mobley and wife Linda of Altus, Oklahoma; a daughter, Rita Jane Morgan and husband Keith of Yukon, Oklahoma; three grandchildren and spouses: Angela & Clayton Duba of Evanston, Illinois; Jared & Julia Morgan of Arcadia, Oklahoma; and Jacquie Morgan of Yukon, Oklahoma; five great-grandchildren: Zach Morgan, Brooke Morgan, Falyn McRay, Ilyse Duba and Evie Duba. Eulis is also survived by nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Having moved to Hobart as a very young child, Eulis considered Hobart his home. Eulis was a sought-after dozer operator after first working for Campbells, then Bingham before owning his own dozer. As you look out over southwest Oklahoma farms, many of the ponds and terraces were probably built by him. In his younger years, he enjoyed hunting and fishing; he was an avid Dallas Cowboy fan and loved watching the OKC Thunder games.

There are few men kinder or more generous than Eulis; and though Heaven gained a precious soul, he will be missed by many.

Graveside Memorial Services are scheduled Monday, September 10, 2018 at 1:00 P.M. at Hobart Rose Cemetery, Hobart, Oklahoma.

Arrangements are entrusted to Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, 580-846-9018.
