

Fae Jean Hunter

September 12, 1928 - December 28, 2015

Fae Jean “MeMe” Hunter was born September 12, 1928 in Greer County, Oklahoma near Midway to Delmar and Jessie Sullivan, and passed away on Monday December 28 2015 at Odessa Texas. Jean grew up near Blair and graduated from high school at Midway. On June 6, 1946 Jean married Billy Roy Hunter in Mangum; they were married for 63 years until Billy passed away in May, 2009. Jean and Billy farmed several years in the Lake Creek Community before moving to New Mexico and West Texas. They moved back to Greer County in 1975 to the family farm. Jean loved to cook and was a wonderful cook, as all of her family and friends will agree. Jean loved to fish and she and Billy spent many, many hour’s together fishing. She often out fished Billy, although he would never admit it and she never pointed that out to him. She also enjoyed gardening, canning, and reading. She won many awards and ribbons at the County Fair. Jean was a wonderful homemaker, with an always immaculate home. She was a member of Lake Creek Extension Homemaker Group and a long time member of the Lake Creek Baptist Church. Her love for music was undeniable, we can see her now tapping her feet and hands to the rhythm of the music. Having said all this about Jean her true passion in life was her family, she loved and lived for them and showed them by her example how to be content in whatever circumstances she found herself in, embracing life.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, two sisters, Gail Walker and Joyce Duffer and one brother Larry Sullivan. She is survived by her son, Billy Tom Hunter and wife Carolyn of Midland, Texas; her daughter, Donna Kidd and husband Johnny of Odessa, Texas; four grandchildren, Amy Hudson and her husband Curtis of Lubbock, Justin Hunter of Midland, Cody Kidd and wife Kristal of Midland, and Holly Cloud and husband James of Midland; eight great grandchildren, Hannah and Ben Hudson of Lubbock, Jaycee, Abbey and Jaxson Kidd of Midland and Avery, Ella and Addison of Midland.
