

Francis "Jack" Wolfe

May 10, 1949 - September 22, 2018

Jack Wolfe passed from this life on September 22, 2018 in Hobart, Oklahoma at age 69. He was born on May 10, 1949 in Phillipston, Pennsylvania to Edwin Wolfe and Helen (Chaplin) Wolfe. Jack grew up in Rimersburg, Pennsylvania where he graduated high school as well. After graduation, he served our country in the United States Army. He married the love of his life Vicki Cherie Corbin on September 2, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland. To this union was born three daughters: Heather, Angela and Corrinne. Jack worked a short time in the oilfield business and moved on to work at the Granite Reformatory. He then worked and retired from the Mars Factory. When he could not sit at home any longer, he went to work for Wal-Mart in Elk City where he was the life of the party, having customers line up in long lines just to hear his contagious laugh. Jack and Vicki began restoring an old landmark home in Hobart where he was begrudgingly learning to paint again. His family was quite aware that his true skills lied in supervising, not work. When his girls were growing up, Jack was very involved with them performing in local community theatres. He also established a theatre troupe at the Reformatory for which he received numerous accolades and awards. Jack was an avid reader, having read every John Grisham and Clive Cussler novel. He loved his cat Angelo, but more than anything, Jack was the best father and Papa to his children and grandchildren.

Jack is survived by his wife and best friend Vicki of the home, cherished daughters: Heather Haller and husband Erin of Kenosha, WI, Angela Smith and husband Joe of Sentinel, OK, Corrinne Durante and husband Jonathan of Los Angeles, CA, and beloved foster daughters Stacey Gibson and Angela Mullins. Jack leaves a legacy of five grandchildren: Mitchell Haller, Mason Haller, Joseph Smith, Cody Smith and Oliver Durante. Jack is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents James (Pap) Cover and Shirley Cover.

Memorial Services for Jack are scheduled for Friday, September 28, 2018, 3:00 P.M. at the Calvary Life Assembly of God Church in Hobart.

Arrangements are entrusted to Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, 580-846-9018. Online condolences for Jack can be made by visiting www.peoplescooperatifuneralhome.com.
