

Glen Author Rich

March 23, 1935 - April 17, 2020

Glen Author Rich passed away Friday April 17th at home with his family by his side. He was born March 23rd 1935 in Bristow, Oklahoma to William and Pearl (Poston) Rich. He grew up in Sapulpa and served two years in the Army as a PE instructor and MP for 2 years. He later moved to Pampa, Texas where he met the love of his life Fern Keeney. They married July 17th of 1957. They moved to Guymon, Oklahoma where he worked for Behne's Construction as a concrete plant batch manager and finisher. He then moved to Elk City, Oklahoma where he worked for Dolese as a cement worker and truck driver and heavy equipment operator. He later moved to Hobart to be near his kids and grandkids. He worked for John Deere as a mechanic and then later for the City of Hobart. He retired later and spent hours with his wife and grandkids. His grandkids were the light of his life. He taught them how to do about anything from mechanics to fishing. Fern passed away in May of 2008 after 50 years of marriage. He spent a lot of time helping his kids with the farming which he loved. Then in 2015 he met his second love Barbara Pittman. They loved to dance at the senior dances, play with her horses and hang out together. He was a member of the Territory Cowboy Church of Hobart. He loved God, his family and others. He was preceded in death by his wife Fern, his parents, three sisters, a brother and his son Ronnie Gene Rich. He is survived by his daughters Glenda (Rich) and Donald Scott, Trish (Rich) and Jim Schumacher all of Hobart.

His grandchildren Jeremy Scott and Misty, Derek Knight and Christine, John Knight and Adrienne all of Hobart and Rebecca Scott of Ardmore.

Great grandchildren Jacob Scott, Kenneth McKelvy, Brittany McKelvy, Bryson Knight, Diesel Knight, Kyler Knight, Delsin Knight of Hobart and A'aliyah Muller of Ardmore. His loving partner Barbara Pittman of Hobart.

After cremation the family will celebrate his life in a small celebration at a later date.
