“ We attended high school together and shared a few classes. Hung out some after class but lost touch after graduation. Had a great sense of humor back then.

“ Selfishly, my heart hurts to know that you have gone. We shared common interests. You had become a sound and present voice in the ether I had come to appreciate and depend upon. You suffered in silence. And now you are gone, leaving a sadness in the void. I'm certain you touched the hearts of many. You will be missed. Rest free in peace and power, Greg. Well done.

“ RIP Greg. I am so sorry I couldn't give you what you'd been waiting so patiently for... you were going to get my kidney after all those tests. You were such a special person... one of a kind. I'm so so sorry.

“ Greg was my younger brother, and I always have felt protective of him, although in his adult years, he seemed bigger than life. I never dreamed I would lose him at such a young age, and I will always wish we could have spent more time together. We spent many hours on the phone, and he drove me all over Colorado the two times I stayed with him and Ansel in NewCastle. Rest In Peace, my dear brother. I am thankful you are no longer suffering. ❤️
