

Herman J. Everhart

October 22, 1931 - May 22, 2013

Herman J. Everhart, 81, Lone Wolf, OK, was born to Fred and Laura (Kosanke) Everhart in Lone Wolf, Oklahoma on October 22, 1931 and departed this life in Hobart, Oklahoma on May 22, 2013 at the age of 81 years and 7 months.

Herman lived this entire life in his home out North of Lone Wolf where he attended Lone Wolf schools. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Lone Wolf, OK. On April 3, 1954, Herman married the love of his life, Vada Newton, and together they had two children, Clayton and Laura. For many years Herman sold two way radios where he met many life long friends. He always enjoyed people and was never too busy to carry on a conversation. After Herman was hurt years ago he was left being a quadriplegic, but that never stopped him. He loved farming and cattle, which he attended to nearly every morning. His latest passion was his granddaughter, Callie, whom he adored more than anything.

He is preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Gene & Harold Everhart. Survivors include his wife, Vada Everhart; a son and daughter in law, Clayton Everhart and Valerie of Lone Wolf, OK; a daughter and son in law, Laura and Joe Peterson of Hobart, OK ; a granddaughter, Callie Everhart of Lone Wolf, OK and many other family members and friends.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Lone Wolf Public Schools, P.O. Box 158, Lone Wolf, OK 73655. Please view and sign the online guestbook at
