

Iris B. Allen

August 22, 1930 - November 26, 2019

Iris B. Allen, longtime Altus resident, passed from this life on November 26, 2019, in Oklahoma City at age 89. She was born on August 22, 1930 in Hobart, Oklahoma to M.L. Carroll and Eliza Blanche (Winters) Carroll. Iris grew up on the family farm near Warren where she attended school as well. Iris worked and retired from the Altus Air Force Base. She worked in housekeeping and took care of the barracks. Iris enjoyed crosswords, any court shows; Jeopardy, Wheel of Fortune, Astrology and she loved reading her Tera Cards, but the most important thing to Iris was her family, spoiling all children and grandchildren. They called her the grandchildren spoiler.

Iris is survived by her daughter Connie Ross and husband Billy of Altus, sister Ann Bryant also of Altus, a legacy of grandchildren: Kristi Ford, Lisa Farmer and husband Doug, Jason Allen and wife Telisa, Kyle Jones, Jaramie Wilson and wife Kristine and Kristopher Ross, great-grandchildren: Nathan, Cara, Kayla, Dakota, Alex, Brayden, Coty and Kaitlyn. Iris is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends.

Iris was preceded in death by her parents, son Coy Dean Allen, daughter Barbara Jones, brothers Coy and Gureld Carroll.

Services for Iris are scheduled for Saturday, November 30, 2019, 2:00 P.M. at Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home Chapel located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, OK, 580-846-9018. Pastor Scott DeVore will officiate with interment following at Lone Wolf Cemetery.

Aunt Iris is and was the most amazing, caring, loving woman in our family! She loved everyone and treated me like a Daughter! Her children were and are always caring and loving and always looked after me and stood beside me! There are no words to describe the loss and pain we will live with forever! The Blessing is God has taken his most Beautiful Angel home! Always Missed, Always Loved, Never Forgotten! I Will Love You Always, Aunt Iris! Love forever, Linda! Bob Johnson and Linda Massey Johnson!
