

James Henry Ellis

December 4, 1943 - March 30, 2025

James Henry Ellis was born to Howard James Ellis and Bertha Elvira Ellis on December 4, 1943, in Hobart, OK. James attended school in Hobart, OK graduating in 1962. After High School, James met and married Coralinda Gayle Mosier. Within that union they welcomed two sons, Bradley James Ellis and Kevin Eugene Ellis. They later divorced in 1970. Shortly after James met and married Linda Lee Sterling in 1974 with whom they welcomed his only daughter Jennifer Lee Ellis. James was a lifelong Hobart resident, he joined the Army National Guard in 1963 as a part time service to his country, during this time he worked jobs at Moran's Auto as a Mechanic and Wrecker driver. From there he moved his employment to Hunn's Tire shop as a tire technician. In 1984, James decided to make the Army National Guard his full-time job, retiring in November of 2003 as rank of Staff Sgt, completing over 40 years total service to his country. James was also a lifelong member and staple of the First Baptist Church, serving our Father in every way he knew how. That was his happy place where he would meet and greet attending members every Sunday, rain or shine. It didn't stop at just Sunday service for James, he was involved in many aspects of the church community as well, including prayer meetings, Men's luncheons and anything else that he could join in, supporting the church and its congregation. James was never one to sit back and be idle as he also spent many years serving the city of Hobart as a Volunteer Fireman, Councilman and working as a volunteer for the election board. James' favorite past times included fishing, hunting, playing cards and games with his family, enjoying and watching his grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other family members at their sporting events. James was preceded in death by his parents Howard and Bertha Ellis, wife Linda Ellis, siblings Etta Faye Miller, Lillie Mae Lee and Mary Ann Harris. He is survived by his sons Brad Ellis (Liz Ellis), Kevin Ellis (Renae Korell) and daughter Jennifer Ellis. He also leaves behind cherished grandchildren and great grandchildren too many to name. Several nieces and nephews to be included as well.
