“ I went to high school with Jan's daughter, Sherilyn. I could go on and on about all of the good times we had. Jan always loved to tell the story of the girls who spent the night with Sherilyn at a slumber party, and slept in the back of the dump truck. The next morning, Robert came out and lifted the bed and dumped all of us out. I will never forget this wonderful woman, or her son, Mike, or daughter, Sherilyn. I am at peace knowing she is in heaven having a wonderful reunion with all of the loved ones she has lost through the years.
