“ I didn't know Jeremy, but read the obituary in the Sentinel Leader newspaper. His grandfather, Earl McCannon was my uncle and was my mother's brother. I remember his dad, Jerry, when he was a little boy. My condolences go out to his family. I wish I had known him. I grew up in Sentinel, but now live in Oklahoma City in a retirement community, Epworth Villa. Previously we lived in Lubbock, Texas.

“ I am so glad I was blessed to work with Jeremy these last few months. He was a good man, loved his grandchildren, and loved Linda with all his heart. There was not a day that went by he didn't talk about her. Jeremy had the most positive outlook on life and he loved life. He loved to laugh and tell funny stories. He is so missed. God had a plan for Jeremy, we just don't understand why he left us so early in life.
