

Jerry Dean Barnes

October 22, 1940 - February 10, 2020

Jerry Dean Barnes passed from this life on February 10, 2020 in Hobart at age 79. He was born on October 22, 1940 in Vernon, Texas, to Cecil and Edna (Brown) Barnes. He grew up in Vernon and went to school there as well. He married his high school sweetheart. Together they built a family and to this union were born four children, two of which have gone to be with the Lord. Jerry enjoyed working on the family farm, was an outdoors person, like a cowboy. While living on First Street in Vernon he had the nicest yard on the block. What he enjoyed the most was sitting, visiting, eating, watching Fox News, and cheering for the Green Bay Packers to beat the Dallas Cowboys every year. He was a dedicated worker. Jerry worked 39 years for the Texas Department of Transportation. He loved his job and crew and was proud of his career. However, he was injured on the job and retired. Jerry married Bobbie Loller in 2012 and moved to Stillwater, Oklahoma. There, they enjoyed garage sales, camping out in their camper, watching Fox News or sports, watching Jimmy Swaggart on TV, he loved the music, while hanging out in their garage. Later, He and Bobbie moved to Hobart, Oklahoma. Where they enjoyed their rest of their time together before his passing.

A Family directed Memorial Service for Jerry is scheduled for Saturday, February 22, 2020, 10:00 A.M. at the Woodland Gardens in Hobart, with Pastor Billy Loller officiating.
