“ *Joe was such a great guy he always came to the rescue when I called about a heating or AC problem. I remember one hot Sunday afternoon in August he came to our home and repaired our AC. He was a life saver! My husband and son were both very ill, I hesitated to call him on a Sunday, but he said, “No Problem, they need to be comfortable.” I will never forget his kindness. When I called whether it was for our home or church, you could count on Joe to come when he said he would be there. That’s rare!
Alice, you are in our prayers. We are going to miss his winning smile, big heart, and the many times he came to our home.*
