

John Gregg Wendland

November 17, 1938 - November 15, 2016

John Gregg “Jack” Wendland age 77 passed from this life on November 15, 2016 in Oklahoma City. Jack was born on November 17, 1938 in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Edwin Arthur Wendland and Evelyn (Nystrom) Wendland. Jack grew up and attended school in Minneapolis. He joined the United States Air Force at age 17 and had a lifelong career in the Air Force traveling three times around the world serving as the cockpit engineer and retiring in 1977 as Master Sergeant from the Altus Air Force Base after serving his country for 22 years. He met and married Ruth in Altus on May 25, 1989 and they made their home in Altus before moving to Boydsville. Jack was an excellent provider and loved his family and children. He was a member of the VFW and to say that Jack loved sports would be an understatement. Jack loved all kinds of sports he did not care what it was he would watch and enjoy it very much.

Jack is survived by sons Rick Wendland of Altus, Larry Morris and wife Easter of Midland, Texas and Terry Morris also of Midland, Texas, daughters Rochelle Presock, Tanja Daniel and husband Randy of Boydsville, OK, Willetta Allen and husband Frank of Lubbock, Texas and Melody Morris and husband Julio Garcia also of Lubbock, Texas. Jack leaves a legacy of sixteen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. Jack was preceded in death by his wife Ruth Wendland and daughter Randi Wendland.
