“ Uncle Josh, you will forever live in my memory with your wonderful calming presence & your ever present loving heart. If I ever needed to feel like I was home, all I had to do was think of your smiling face and I would be transported back to OK with all of the family there & all of the family that is no longer there. You are with our heavenly family now waiting for the rest of us to join you all in that that heavenly home where we are all destined to meet once again. God's Blessings & Grace for your remaining family here on earth & keep them until that day. I love you.

“ The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 5:8 that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. In other words when we pass from this life in an instant we will be present with God in heaven. You are finally home, Uncle Josh. No more being lost in your own mind. You've passed from the constraints of this earth to a place of ultimate healing and beauty that we cannot fathom. Sweet Uncle Josh...I have such wonderful and loving memories of you. I remember your kindness, thoughtfulness, and your gap toothed smile, which endeared you to me forever. I always felt closer to you and Glenna. I remember digging for the beautiful rosette crystals in the salty sand, and the buried treasures along the lake shore, your silly jokes and the way you laughed. The times I stayed with you and Glenna gave me so much joy. I love you, Josh. I so look forward to seeing you in Heaven. ~kay smith
