

Juanita G. Hood

January 21, 1923 - January 25, 2012

Juanita Geraldine Hood, 88, Willow, passed away on January 25, 2012 at the Grace Living Center in Mangum, OK. She and her twin sister, Bonita Imogene, were born Sept. 21, 1923 to W.F. and Minnie Pearl (Manning) Griffis at Eastview, OK.

She attended Eastview School where she played on the basketball team, graduating in 1942. After graduation she married Wilburn Elmo Hood on April 15, 1942 in Brinkman, Oklahoma. Following Wilburn's years in the service, they moved to Pecos, TX from 1952 until 1958, when they returned to the Willow area where they ranched and farmed until his death in 2003.

Juanita was a homemaker, helpmate, mother and wife. She worked several years outside the home as a bus driver and cook for the Mangum School system.

She was a long time and faithful member of the Willow Church of Christ, where her husband was an elder and she taught Sunday School and helped with Vacation Bible School.

Some of Juanita's favorite pastimes were watching football on TV and visiting with her family and friends. But most of all she loved having her grandchildren come to visit. They all have treasured memories of those times with her, but their favorite memory was when she would bake and decorate “gingerbread boys” for them.

Due to failing health, Juanita moved into Willow following Wilburn’s death and later to Grace Living Center in Mangum.

Juanita is survived by her three children; Chris and wife Gerry, Tulsa, OK; Vickie Hood, Willow, OK, and Patsy (Palmore) Eason and husband Benny, Sikeston, MO; 9 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilburn; her parents; 3 brothers, Othel, Hubert and Morris; and 3 sisters, Willa Mae, her twin sister, Bonita, and Helen Ruth; and one son-in-law, Michael Palmore.
