“ You were part of life for over 30 years married to your stepbrother. Ernie never thought of you as a ‘step’, he always called his sister. We enjoyed all the weekend visits you made to come and see us. Now your with the love of your life whom you missed dearly. RIP until we meet again.

“ You and I were so much alike. We both love the color pink, clowns, being in control and sleeping with a foot sticking out of the blankets. I will always remember our phone calls. Rest peacefully Mom. Until we meet again. love you always.
