

Judy Kay Marshall

October 15, 1946 - May 25, 2022

Judy Kay Marshall passed from this life on May 25, 2022, in Elk City at age 75. She was born on October 15, 1946, to Andy and Kate (Knight) Parker in Mangum, Oklahoma. Judy attended all her school years at Reed and graduated there as well. Beginning a twenty-year career with United Grocery, retired, then married Ronnie Robert Marshall on April 7, 1987. They owned and operated BJ'S Quick Mart in Hammon, beginning in 1987 and she retired again in 2007. Judy was always working, liked to play cards, especially with her parents and family and she loved going home to the Reed Community. Judy is survived by her husband Ronnie of the home, son, Joe Miller and wife Kelli of Elk City, sister, Sue Burcham of Altus, two sister-in-law's, Kay Swanson and Sue Hollingsworth and a legacy of three grandchildren: Dylan, Brayden, and Baylee Miller all of Elk City, along with nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents Andy and Kate Parker, sisters Jody Lollis, Ann Godfrey, and infant brother David Parker.

Public Visitation will begin Friday, May 27, 2022 from 1:00 P.M. until 5:00P.M. at Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home.

Funeral Services for Judy are scheduled for Saturday, May 28, 2022, 10:00 A.M., at Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home Chapel, located at 1400 West Main, Lone Wolf, OK., 580-846-9018, with Pastor Gary Baird officiating. A private interment will follow at Reed Cemetery.

“ I was her CNA at the nursing home she was in and she's the sweetest lady and she had a amazing personality. I grew very close to her in a little bit of time I spent with her. She was definitely my favorite and I will surely miss her at work. She brightened the place with her jokes and kindness. Prayers to her family right now 🙏
