

Kelli (Aunie) Bagwell

May 4, 1963 - March 21, 2024

Kelli Bagwell (Aunie) passed from this life on March 21, 2024, in Altus, Oklahoma, at age 60. She was born on May 4, 1963, to Wayne and Patricia Ann (Hicks) Croft in San Diego, California. The family moved to Georgia, then to Ada, and Altus where she attended grade school, and graduated from Navajo High School in 1981. Kelli married the love of her life, Dirk Bagwell and to this union were born daughter Dara-Brooke (DB) and son Dirk Kade (Kader). Kelli worked for the S.W. Oklahoma Community Action for over 22 years, where she was the Family Engagement/ Family Services Specialist for the Head Start program. She attended First Baptist Church of Blair and was a very proud member of the Chickasaw Tribe. Kelli loved to cook, she liked her yard work, and was an avid music lover. She especially enjoyed watching Dirk play softball, working out on the farm with him and loved her karaoke days. She was very involved in the kids and grandkids activities. Her grandchildren were definitely her pride and joy.

She is survived by son Kader and wife Kristen of Altus and daughter Brooke Rose and husband Jacob of Blair, brothers, Kevin Croft and wife Tanya of Altus, Kenny Croft of Yukon, sister Karri Belding of Blair, father and mother in-law James and Sally Bagwell. Kelli leaves a legacy of four very special grandchildren, Caleb and Cadee Rose and Presley and Dixen Bagwell. She also leaves behind her nieces and nephews, Seth and Stephanie Beasley, James Bagwell and fiance Kait Dillon, Konner Croft, Shane and Kyli Reaser, Chais Dunlap, Trent and Sarah Belding, Kandice Crownover, Kayle Croft, Jeremy Croft, Austin Croft, and a host of other relatives and friends. Kelli was preceded in death by her husband Dirk, parents Wayne and Pat Croft, nephew Derek Beasley, and Lenny, the potbellied pig.
