Ken was a delight to be around and the gentlest soul. He reminded me of his dad, Uncle Loren in many ways. His easy way he smiled and his teasing! He and his dad certainly had that in common. Mom still talks about her brother Loren and all the nice things he did for her. It's about all she remembers about her past at the moment, but I don't mind hearing the stories of going hunting with Loren! Wouldn't trade a million dollars for our last visit over the phone! To Dorinda, Tommy, Carol, kids and grandkids, I know you're heart is hurting, but look at the great company he is in now! Much love, Johnny & Phyllis Van Court and Paul & Sue Waggoner

“ Ken, you were my mentor at Hanover in Pampa. I would not be the mechanic I am today without you. You taught me to have pride in what I do and to do the best I can. I am a service manager now because of you. I wish I could of told you that before crossed the rainbow. Thank you will never be enough. I thank you and my family thanks you. Rest In Peace you gentle giant. Will never forget your.

Oh the memories I could share about my brother in law. The first time my oldest daughter and I met him, my sister said "Now he's really tall so Tiffany may be scared." Nope she saw him for the great big teddy bear that he was. It was love at first sight. He picked her up, put her on his shoulder, and that was her Unk Ken from then on. Me, I was like Holy Cow this dude is tall! Heaven gained a great man that will be dearly missed.
