“ I was saddened to hear of the loss of your mother, Kelly. I think of her whenever I pass your house on Quapaw. The last time I saw Kelly was at Bill Clinton's Library dedication. I believe she was there with Mark Palmer, who graduated with us. I have many fond memories of Kelly, working with her at the Bohemia. She was a friend and a confidant to a teenager who didn't have a clue to where I was going. I'm sure her faith has taken her to that wonderful place above.

“ My sweet Grandma was a woman of faith. She always taught life long lessons by quoting scripture. She taught love, mercy, forgiveness and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ! Her faith was steady and her prayers were often. Prayers for my beautiful Aunt Cissie, who carries on as the bloodline prayer warrior and a wonderful daughter to her mother. Prayers for healing hearts.
