

Leighton Joy Alvarez

February 22, 2019 - March 14, 2019

Leighton Joy Alvarez surprised the world by arriving on Friday, February 22, 2019, along with her little sister, Lola Blair. She weighed two pounds, one ounce and was fourteen inches long. Leighton had blonde hair, loved her pacifier, and loved being held by her parents. One thing that was obvious from the first was that Leighton loved to stretch out her legs. A few minutes after being tucked in to her “Snuggle Me” by the nurses or her parents, Leighton’s little leg would be dangling out over the edge. The family called her “Leggy Leighton”. Although her time with us was brief, she has made a difference in our lives. Words can never express how much she was loved and will continue to be loved for as long as we live.

Leighton Joy is survived by her parents, Rafe & Sierra (Wald) Alvarez and her little sister, Lola Blair all of Yukon, paternal grandmother Cariann Davidson and Aunt Raegan Alvarez; Paternal great-grandparents Jack & Nancy Myers all of El Reno. Maternal grandparents, Tim and Joy Wald, Uncle Jantz and Aunt Alyssa Wald, cousins Everly and Scarlett, Aunt Summer Wald and maternal great-grandparents Wayne and LaFern Freeman all of Hobart. Leighton is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends.

Leighton was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather, Herman Alvarez and paternal great-grandparents Jesse and Janis Wald.

Memorials may be made in Leighton's name to the Oklahoma Family Network.
