“ Linda and her husband Ira used to visit my mother Xona in Altus. Ira was my mother's cousin. Linda and Ira would visit and stay overnight or for a weekend, and my mother loved their company. Sometimes I would come over for the weekend when they were there and my mother, my sister Kim, Ira, and I would play pinochle while Linda would work her crochet and sit with us at the card table. Linda was always helpful to my mother during their visits, washing up dishes in the sink or clearing up after supper. I remember one time when I was visiting I mentioned my local Bath and Body store no longer carried my favorite soaps, and the next time we were together, Linda brought me a big bag full of my soaps she found at her local store. I was so touched she remembered that offhanded comment I had made. She was kind company to my mother, and I will always remember her for that. I hope Linda has found peace with her beloved Ira, and that Jeff and her family have found peace since the time of her passing.

“ I met Linda at the Granite Sr Center when I was volunteering delivering lunches to the inbound. She needed a driver to bring her back from Elk City one day and our friendship grew from there. I will miss you Linda until we meet again! I love ya girlfriend!
