

Lois Coy Nason

April 5, 1935 - July 14, 2025

Lois Coy Nason passed from this life on July 14, 2025, in Altus at age 90. She was born on April 5, 1935, to Coy Bohanon and Mary (Daughtery) Bohanon in Sayre, Oklahoma. Lois met her husband George in 1953 as he was beginning his tour of duty during the Korean Conflict. They married on April 9, 1955, and made their home in Oklahoma City for a short time before moving to the farm, southwest of Sentinel. Lois enjoyed gardening, quilting and cooking. She was well known for her fried chicken. She toted many meals to the field to feed her husband, neighbors and to those in need. Lois took great pride in a meal in which all ingredients came from their farm including beef, chicken and vegetables from her garden. She was known as a hard worker and often worked in the fields alongside her husband. Her grandsons never failed to put a smile on her face. Having three grandsons meant she spent a lot of time at the sandbox, tractor rides and farms built in the middle of her living room floor, complete with barns, animals, tractors and trucks. Then came four great granddaughters. She looked forward to their visits and kept her cookie jar full for them. She is survived by her children; Robert George Nason of Sentinel, Mary Dawn Cole and husband Flint also of Sentinel. Lois leaves a legacy of grandchildren; Brannon Seth Cole and wife Tristyn, Sentinel, Weston Den Cole and wife Haley, Sentinel, Robert Seth Nason and Jessica of Okarche, great grandchildren: Ryeitt Coy Cole, Breck Elena Cole, Kellbri Kay Cole and Livvy Mae Cole all of Sentinel and a host of other relatives and friends. Lois was preceded in death by her parents Coy and Mary Bohanon, husband

George Seth Nason, son Gary Don Nason, sisters Hazel Barnett, Phyllis Johnson and Jo Broddrick. “ She was such a good person, soft spoken and hard working. One time I got to be a part of her home cooked meals delivered to the field. They let down the tailgate and it wouldn't hold it all. All from scratch, and man could she sew. She was so thoughtful. She hand made Jenny an Easter basket one year. She was a wonderful wife, mother and friend. I'm sure she's having a wonderful reunion with a new amazing body. Sincere sympathy to all.
