

Louis "Pete" Calvin Howl

January 14, 1925 - December 3, 2014

Louis "Pete" Calvin Howl, age 89, a resident of Lone Wolf, Oklahoma passed away at his home on Wednesday, December 3, 2014.

Pete was born on January 14, 1925 to Claude and Bonnie (Lawson) Howl. He grew up in Lone Wolf where he graduated high school in 1944. On November 3, 1945 he married the love of his life, Alma Rae Freeman in Vernon, TX. The couple lived a short time south of Hobart, and made their home in Lone Wolf in 1953. Pete served his country in the U.S. Army and received an honorable discharge. He had an appliance store in Lone Wolf for a short time, and worked as an appliance repairman in Hobart for several years. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Lone Wolf where he served on various boards, taught Sunday school, and served as a youth counselor. He was a member of the Lions Club in Lone Wolf for many years. For 27 years he traveled southwest Oklahoma, refereeing football and basketball games. Many days, you could catch him drinking coffee with his friends. He was a dedicated farmer throughout his entire life, and recently planted his final crop. Pete was a loving husband, father, and friend who will be deeply missed.

He is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Alma Rae Howl; 2 infant sons, Robert Wayne Howl and Jerry Duane Howl; a daughter, Lana Carole Howl; a brother, Wayne Howl; 2 sisters, Shirley Graumann and Margaret Straub.

Survivors include a sister-in-law, Jane and husband De Kuykendall of New Braunfels, TX; several nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

Funeral Services will be at 3:00 PM, Saturday, December 6, 2014 at the First United Methodist Church in Lone Wolf, OK. Burial will be at the Hobart Rose Cemetery in Hobart, OK.

Contributions can be sent to the First United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 357, Lone Wolf, OK 73655.
