

Lynda Faye Copeland

May 31, 1933 - November 1, 2019

Lynda Faye Copeland passed from this life on November 1, 2019, in Edmond, Ok. She was born on May 31, 1933 in Washita County, Ok, near Retrop, to Paul Ervin Copeland and Nellie Geneva (Corbin) Copeland. Her schooling included Retrop School, Beckham County OK, Draughns Business College and Oklahoma Christian University in OKC, where she graduated with a Bachelors Degree. Her career included bookkeeping before the age of computers and teaching elementary age children in Cherryville, Kansas, where she retired.

She loved playing basketball and riding horses as a youth, was an avid OU & OCC fan as well as all kinds of sports on TV or in person. Lynda had a great love for OCC and was very involved with the school but especially God's Word, Christ and His church were always very important to Lynda. She was very active in the Church of Christ in Edmond for more than 50 years. Lynda later enjoyed crocheting and knitting house shoes, scarves and blankets for those in need and family members. She also loved playing all sorts of board games or cards with family and friends whenever she would get together with them. Lynda loved God, her church family, OCC and chocolate.

She is survived by two brothers Wendell Copeland of OKC, Ok, Rick Copeland and wife Karen of Amarillo TX, sister in law, Kay Copeland of Lone Wolf, Ok. three nieces and one nephew and their families, Kristi Pierce of Yukon, Madisyn Monroe and husband D.J. and Baby Elyza of Norfolk, Virginia and Mackenzie Easley and husband Dakota of Yukon, Ok., Deidra, Fred, Reagan, Jaxson Peters of Norman, OK, Kyle, Jennifer, Josh Copeland and daughter Amilia of The Colony, TX and Tina Copeland of OKC, Ok. Lynda is also survived by a host of cousins and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents Paul and Geneva Copeland, brother Don Copeland and sister in law, Barbara Copeland
