

Madeline Sells

February 18, 1925 - September 29, 2021

Larence Madeline Osborne was born February 18, 1925, in Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, to Raymond and Jewel Simmons Osborne and passed away Wednesday, September 29, 2021, at the age of 96.

Madeline married Cread Sells at the First Baptist Church in Lone Wolf on February 23, 1947. They had three daughters—Lou (Larry), Bet (Glen), and Brenda—six grandchildren, Shelly (Bud), Tina (Michael), Marsha, Kevin(Cortney), Julie(Brian), Melanie(Nick)—ten great grandchildren—Taylor, Payton, Ethan, Collin(Jade), Grayson, Christian, Ayden, Addison, Noah, Jake, Caroline—Great-great grandchild—Juniper--Special family members Pete and Michelle, Cory and Chelsea, Marlee, Sawyer, Maizee, and Carsyn. They also had many special nieces and nephews whom they loved as their own.

Madeline and Nancy Davis were long-time sister/friends.

Madeline was a member of the Hobart and Lone Wolf Churches of Christ. She worked side by side to Cread on the farm until she went to work as a secretary and ended her professional career as a Medical Record Technician for Elkview General Hospital and Dr. Bill Finch in Hobart. She loved to sew, bake and share homemade bread, and square dance, but most of all, she loved to have all of her family together. Nothing made her happier than cooking a big Sunday meal and having us all eating together. She also loved to work in the garden.

Madeline believed in working hard, serving the Lord, and loving her family. She taught us all how to love without reason, laugh instead of crying, and enjoy every moment we are given in this life. She lived her 96 years of life as a strong woman who did not believe in wastefulness or idleness, even to the end a survivor.

Madeline was preceded in death by husband Cread, great granddaughters Caroline and Maizee, her parents, brothers Virgil, Bill, and Andrew and sisters Della and Dathel. She was the last surviving aunt of both sides of the Sells and Osborne families.
