

Madoline Joyce Coffman

February 10, 1933 - December 21, 2015

Madoline Joyce Coffman, age 82, passed from this life on Monday, December 21, 2015 in Norman, Oklahoma. Madoline was born on February 10, 1933 in Lone Wolf, Oklahoma to Boyd Don Wilson and Viola Marie (Blagg). Madoline grew up in the Lone Wolf area and on September 8, 1951 she married the love of her life, Carrell "Cat" Leon Coffman in Yuma, Arizona. To this union were born three children, Anita, Sandy, and Troy.

Madoline did many, many things in her life, she went to Cosmetology School in Altus and owned and operated her own beauty parlor, she was a member of a Women's Softball League and continued even when the children were half grown, she belonged to a Saddle Club, she loved to crochet, play cards, was partial to Dachshund dogs, (they were the only kind of dog she ever had), she loved to sing along with all country songs and knew the words as well and was a good singer, but most of all she was what we would call a professional quilter. Madoline had clients for her custom made quilts all over and she probably made and gave away more quilts than she sold. Madoline was a member of the Church of Christ.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband, Carrell "Cat" Coffman and all of her eleven siblings; Madoline was the last survivor of all her family. Madoline is survived by her two daughters, Anita Kliever and husband Charles of Blanchard, OK and Sandy Jackson of Caddo Mills, TX; one son, Troy Coffman of Elk City, OK; three grandchildren, Jill, Erin, and Kila; four great grandchildren, Parker, Jansen, Maylan, Cole, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Viewing will be Sunday, December 27, 2015 from 1-5 p.m., with services scheduled for Monday, December 28, 2015 at 2:00p.m. in the Peoples Cooperative Funeral Home Chapel with Brother Bill Coffin officiating and interment will follow at Lone Wolf Cemetery with Hank Jones, Shannon Richey, Clyde Hidlebough, Charles Kliewer and Rick Ellis serving as pallbearers and Jimmy McClung and Willie Jackson as Honorary Pallbearers.

Madoline was such a lovely person, very funny and caring. Know it is hard to lose both of your parents in such a short passing of time. Memories will go on forever.
