“ I’m so sorry to hear of Aunt Mary’s passing. I know it has been a rough few years for her and my hope is that knowing she is now at peace will bring you comfort. I will always remember her for her spunk and straight forward manner. The last time I saw her she and Uncle Earl came to Texas for a visit and wanted to take us out for dinner. It was a little bit of a surprise when she specifically wanted Taco Bell. At the time Taco Bell was giving out car antenna attachments of a Chihuahua featured on commercials saying “Yo Quiero Taco Bell”. Mary was determined to get her hands on one. Unfortunately it was a very popular item and none was to be found. I still get a chuckle remembering the event. She was definately a unique and special person. RIP Aunt Mary.
