

Mary Dee Manaugh

October 23, 1924 - September 13, 2023

Mary Manaugh, age 98, passed away Wednesday September 13, 2023 in Altus, Oklahoma. Mary was born October 23, 1924 in Roosevelt, Oklahoma. Her father and mother were Walter and Addie Davis. She was among 8 children that lived and worked on their family farm in Roosevelt. She graduated from high school in her hometown and later attended Hills Business College. She was employed as a secretary for the County Attorney in Hobart, Oklahoma where she met her future husband, Harold Manaugh. After he returned from serving in WWII they married in 1947. They were happily married for 68 years. She proudly managed their home in Oklahoma City until 1987 when Harold retired and they moved to Mustang, Oklahoma. Their new home was on 10 acres near town where together they enjoyed family, gardening and quiet country living. They later moved to town and both were active in the Mustang United Methodist Church and the local Chapter of the American Legion. She enjoyed family, crafting and volunteering in the community. She was preceded in death by her father, mother, one sister Lois Higgenbotham, three brothers, Blaine, Daryl and Stanley, her husband Harold and daughter Marilyn Brazell. She is survived by brother Nelson of Altus, Oklahoma, sister Patsy Fleming of Abilene, Texas, sister Nancy McNutt of Edmond, Oklahoma, son Roger and wife Carol of Windcrest, Texas, grandsons Michael and wife Lauren of Durant, Oklahoma, Mathew of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, granddaughter Clarice and her husband John Waters of Mesquite, Texas, and great grandchildren John, Cortland, Hannah,

Madison, Caylee and Ellie, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
