

Mary Esther Theis

October 14, 1920 - December 3, 2014

Mary Esther (Work) Theis, age 94, a resident of Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, passed away at her home on Wednesday, December 3, 2014.

The daughter of Robert Marshall and Roberta Flemming (Gibson) Work, she is preceded in death by her husband, Tom Theis; four siblings, Ray Work, Bob Work, Emma Burt, and Dick Work.

Survivors include her four sons, Joe, Larry, Bob, and Dick Theis; 6 grandchildren, Aisha Galt-Theis born September 18, 1977, Alysia Galt-Theis born September 14, 1979, Alona Galt Theis born May 8, 1986, Christian Theis born May 15, 1984, Liam Theis born August 16, 1996, and Trevor LaRoche born December 18, 1995; 2 great grandchildren, Sebastian and Julian Safranek; and a host of friends.

Mary's peaceful passing in her own home was so moving to her sons that they ask any donations in her memory be made to hospice and palliative care organizations so that other families can have this comfort.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Mary was always such a character. I have fond memories of Mary, Tom and family passing through for visits, both when we lived in New York and later in Illinois. Then later Moira and I visiting them in Lonewolf. What an wonderful family. Our condolences to Joe, Larry, Bob and Dick.

“ Tom and Mary were such sweet friends of my father, Dick LaFaver, for so many years. They had plenty of fun stories and tales that they shared every time they got together. I know they are in heaven together getting reacquainted and catching up on the stories, jokes and tales. Tim and Jeanne LaFaver

“ Mrs. Theis was a beautiful, gracious, intelligent woman. Her husband Tom was equally respected and the love they shared was like no other. It makes me smile to think they are together again. Love and hope to their family...
