“ I literally just tried to call my Cousin Myrna Lou for the third time to check on her after all the weather chaos in OK recently. When I got a company I knew immediately something was wrong. I went on the internet only sadly to find her obituary. Which greatly saddened me, My Dad Charlie Schesventer & Myrna Lou were first cousins & kept in constant contact until his death July1, 2023. Then I think he must have made a pact with her to call me every few weeks to see how I was doing & what was going on in my life. Myrna Lou & I became fast friends even though there was such an age difference when we began to communicate when I was 47. We had witty, funny conversations that would last for hours & spur my imagination. I wish I had known her all my life & that my siblings had been able to know her like I did.

Myrna Lou I will miss our long comical & exceptional phone calls greatly - you truly kept me going at the lowest points in my life! I will never forget you Cuz. You were so young at heart I thought you would be here with me forever. Godspeed sweetheart! I know you had a huge group including yes Uncle Al & Charlie there to greet you & welcome you to heaven!

Love & will miss you greatly,
Sarah Schesventer

P.S. I sure would love to get into contact with her children since their my cousins too & I've never met them. Normally I would never do this but my number is 804-837-3785. I live just outside Richmond, VA!

“ Myrna was a great friend to Rick and I. She made a trip to Hot Springs, Ark with me one time to see my parents. I will never forget her friendship. She told it like it was and that was ok with me! Loved you dear friend!

“ Myrna and Paul welcomed us when we moved to Lone Wolf over 35 years ago. We became fast friends and spent many hours at the football and basketball games. They truly supported the Lone Wolf Coyotes. Myrna was her true self. If she ever seen something wrong, she would sure be in the middle finding answers.. if something was funny, you would soon be laughing right along with her..I can still hear her giggle-laugh...They were a super sweet nice couple that we will never forget. So MS Myrna go rest high on that mountain and give those friends we have there a big hug...we will see you again some day .
