

Opal Lorene Dillahunty

July 21, 1922 - March 9, 2023

Opal Lorene (Stooksberry) Dillahunty passed from this life on March 9, 2023, at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was born on July 21, 1922, to Jay and Myrtle (VanAusdall) Stooksberry on the family farm, near Lake Creek, attended school and has lived within eight miles of where she was born and raised all of her 100 years. She married Raymond Dillahunty on July 10, 1943, in Hobart and they were married for 72 years when he passed on the 26th of May 2015. They had four children: Linda, George, Joe, and Patsy. She was a longtime member of the Lake Creek Church of Christ, Granite Church of Christ, and the Greer County Quilters Guild. Opal was an avid quilter; her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren receiving the intricate and delicate quilts especially designed for them, treasures to hold dear. She also quilted and donated quilts of Valor to many veterans. Opal made over 150 quilts for her family, friends and veterans. She loved gardening, canning and freezing fruits and veggies. Her many delicious meals will be missed by all.

Opal is survived by one son Joe Dillahunty, two daughters, Linda Rae Ragan and husband Delvin and Patsy Parker and husband Mike. She leaves a legacy of eight grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren, six great-great-grandchildren, along with a host of other relatives and friends. Opal was preceded in death by her husband Raymond, son George, grandsons Brett and Bill, and infant twin grandsons.

Services for Opal are scheduled for Wednesday, March 15, 2023, 10:00 A.M., at the Granite Church of Christ with Cole Wootton and Garry Looper officiating, and Ken Hamilton and Caleb Wootton assisting. Interment will follow in Rock Cemetery.
