“ Lowery and I were airman together. We served in Italy as sentry’s on the flight line or the weapons storage area. Often in a crowded truck or guard shack. We shared stories and I never doubted he was proud to be a husband and father. We shared meals and laughs together and even tears. We would have much preferred to be home. He was humble in nature but proud to serve and I was proud to serve with him. My condolences to his family. Rocky Mireles
