

Paula Shirleen Snow

February 22, 1954 - February 23, 2018

Paula Shirleen Snow was born in Mangum Oklahoma on February 22, 1954 to Floyd and Toyah Willoughby. She was quite a tomboy and was pretty ingenuitive. Before her brother was born, she kidded, she was "daddy's little boy". She graduated Granite High School in 1972. In 1980, with a daughter in tow, she rediscovered her childhood sweetheart, Gary Snow. The family enjoyed everything outdoors for many years and spent all of their family time under the Sun and stars listening to music. Paula and Gary instilled a deep love of nature into their children. At the young age of 52, Gary passed in March 2005. Paula spent the remainder of her years living in the city near her kids and looking after them. That was always her main focus, no matter how she was feeling. In 2016, her father Floyd passed away. Bereaved at the age of 80, Toyah passed peacefully at the very end of January 2018, just 23 days before Paula made her exit on February 23, 2018. Paula is dreadfully, painfully mourned and missed. She is survived by her little brother Barton, her daughter Alisha, and son Terrell, as well as her granddaughter and a host of loving nieces and nephews. There will never be a replacement for Paula (Mom). She did not want a funeral service and underwent cremation; however, a non-conventional service is to take place this summer, official date pending. The family would like to apologize for the lapse in time between her death and this posting. On the plaque which was forever hanging in her room:

"I do my thing and you do your thing.

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations,
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you, and I am I, and if by chance we find each other, it's beautiful. If not, it can't be helped." (Fritz Perls, 1969)
