“ Randy and I went to school together and ran around all of our life's. I was there in the delivery of his daughter and in the wheat fields many years. He was a special guy and dear to my heart (almost a brother). He had Danny Dunn bring him out to see me after my mother passed and gave me the biggest hug. He told me then it would probably be the last time I would see him. And it was. He loved Vicki deep but his daughter and grandbabies were the light of his life. He made a mark on this world of being his own person and will be missed. Be at peace now, Randy!

I was a classmate of Randy's. When I moved back to Lone Wolf, Randy was the first person to hug me and welcomed me back. He was a very kind and gentle soul. My condolences to the family. May he rest in Peace.
