

Raymond Oliver Watson

March 29, 1931 - July 10, 2016

Raymond Oliver Watson age 85 passed from this life on July 10, 2016 in Weatherford, OK. Raymond was born March 29, 1931 to Johnny Elliot and Clara Mae (Craig) Watson of Hydro, OK and was the loving husband of the late Emmy Watson.

Raymond was a teacher for approximately 37 years. His greatest treasures were his two children, three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Raymond was a wonderful husband, father and friend. Ray enjoyed playing golf, fishing and watching sports. He also greatly enjoyed planting a garden each spring and sharing some of the garden foods with friends and neighbors.

He was so very proud of each of the children and grandchildren and especially encouraged them to secure necessary education, to have good morals and good work ethic. They each accomplished the characteristic and have made wonderful and necessary contributions to their country.

Ray spent two years in the United States Army during the Korean Conflict.

Ray greatly enjoyed watching the farming operation by Barry Squires and all of his workers and often remarked about how much food they produced and how many people they were furnishing food for.

Ray was modest about a certain accomplishment, but it needs to be mentioned: He wrote and published a Biology Book while living in California.

Raymond is survived by son: Arlin Watson and wife Gayla of Valley Springs, CA, daughter Raymona Scott of Denver CO. Raymond leaves a legacy of three grandchildren: Christina Alves, Aaron Watson and Corey Watson and four great-grandchildren: Sean, Danica, Benjamin and Emilia and one brother Ronnie Watson of Lake Charles LA.

Preceding Raymond in death was his wife Emmy Watson, son Marlin Watson, his father Johnny Elliot Watson and mother Clara Mae Watson. Also his brothers: Randall, Carl and Charley Sisters Johnnie, Valla, Reba.

Services for Ray will be Tuesday July 19, 2016 at 11:00 AM at the Alfalfa Baptist Church in Alfalfa, Oklahoma with Interment at the Carnegie Cemetery, Carnegie, Oklahoma. Arrangements entrusted to People's Cooperative Funeral Home in Lone Wolf, OK.
