“ Russ was a great man. I loved him very much. He brought a special happiness and contentment to me. He had a great heart and his family and friends held their very own space there. He was wise and compassionate, thoughtful, loving, romantic, and very funny. Just being in the same room with him brought me unexplainable happiness. I'm going to miss him so much. He shared his loving and friendly family with me, and I will forever be grateful for that. He and his family brought a warm of love into my life and it will always remain with me. I know he is no longer in pain and I'm glad for that but I will always hurt and grieve for my loss. When you remember Russ just remember the love he handed out freely and that was so easy to give back to him.
