

Sandra Kay Martin

June 1, 1950 - August 11, 2024

Sandra Kay Martin passed from this life on Sunday, August 11, 2024, at age 74 years and 72 days. She was born on June 1, 1950, in Mangum, Oklahoma to Gorman “Junior” Hector Sewell, Jr. and Patsy Ruth (Greer) Sewell. Sandy grew up in Lake Creek, attended Lake Creek Baptist Church where she accepted our Lord Jesus Christ as her savior at a young age, and graduated from Mangum High School in 1969. She moved to Elk City where she owned and operated multiple restaurants, serving the best onion burgers in southwest Oklahoma; she had a heart for cooking and serving others. Later in life, Sandy became a home health aide, caring for many people, and working until she became ill. She loved chasing “them” grandkids from ball games, to stock shows, across the states for special events and around the farm, and she had a passion and love for animals, even taking pigs and goats on joyrides in her vehicle. Sandy was known for her contagious smile, love for life, and her favorite title was Meme and Meme to all.

She is survived by husband David Martin, Sr. of the home; son, David Martin, Jr. of Granite; brothers, Hector Sewell of Norman and Richard Sewell of Granite. She leaves a legacy of five grandchildren, Mindy Martin, Jacklynn McSperitt, Kirt Allen, Brandon Allen and wife Victoria, and Sara Beth Allen, and her six great-grandchildren, Haegan, Phoenix, Gunner, Emma, Andrew and Colton, and nephew, Richard Sewell, Jr., niece, Torrey Longnecker, and a host of other relatives and friends. Sandy was preceded in death by her parents, Gorman “Junior” and Patsy Sewell; daughter, Mary Ann Allen, and son-in-law Andrew Kenneth Allen.

Celebration of life for Sandy is scheduled for Thursday, August 15, 2024, 11:00 A.M., at Lake Creek Baptist Church, with Pastor Derrall Altom officiating and Dean Graumann assisting.
